

President's Prize: Poster Presentation Criteria

Scientific content (70 points)

- a) Abstract (10 points) Well written; accurately represents poster content
- b) Title and Introduction (10 points) Appropriate, clear, and engaging
- c) Methods / Materials (15 points) Clearly described; appropriate study design and approach to problem; innovative
- d) Results (20 points) Appropriate analysis
- e) Discussion / Conclusion (15 points) Clearly stated; supported by results; significance to field of study; future directions

Display (30 points)

- a) Organization (10 points) Logical order; clearly written; appropriate amount of material for space
- b) Graphics and Presentation (20 points) Overall visual appeal; good colour scheme; text appropriate size; proofed; appropriate use of figures / tables / references; good flow from section to section; questions clearly answered.

President's Prize: Oral Presentation Criteria

Scientific content (60 points)

- a) Title and Introduction (10 points) Appropriate, clear, and engaging
- b) Methods / Materials (15 points) Clearly described; appropriate study design and approach to problem; innovative
- c) Results (20 points) Appropriate analysis
- d) Discussion / Conclusion (15 points) Clearly stated; supported by results; significance to field of study; future directions

Presentation (40 points)

- a) Organization (10 points) Logical order; good flow between sections
- b) Graphics (15 points) Overall visual appeal; good colour scheme; text appropriate size; proofed; appropriate use of figures / tables
- c) Delivery (15 points) Good volume, speed and eye contact; enthusiastic / engaging style; appropriate amount of material covered; clear answers to questions